Bailey by name...

The Bailey story started back in 1947, when Martin Bailey designed and built the very first Bailey caravan in his South Bristol garage. A year later in 1948, F G Bailey Ltd was formed and their caravans captured the nation's growing quest for adventure. Bailey quickly grew into the thriving, family-run business it still is today.

We've come a long way since those early days, but even with 75 years of experience now behind us, we have never stopped considering how we can push the boundaries and make our business better. And, like you, we continue to look towards to our next adventure...

Our road to sustainability

Caravans and motorhomes have long provided environmentally friendly holidays for people who have an appreciation for the great outdoors and who want to see it remain protected.

At Bailey, we remain committed to playing our part in this process by reducing the environmental footprint of our operations and striving to make our leisure vehicle products as sustainable as possible. Over recent years we have undertaken a range of initiatives designed to reduce our impact on the environment, covering our products, our sites and our culture.

In 2022 we signed up to the Woodland Trust Woodland Carbon Scheme to help reduce the environmental impact of our operations and at the same time boost biodiversity through the planting of trees. Consequently, when customers now purchase new Bailey caravans or motorhomes, we are planting trees to help offset the carbon emissions generated when we manufacture them.

To learn more about this and the other changes we are making to become a greener business visit the Sustainable Manufacturing page on our website or scan the QR code below.

Made in Bristol

We've been proud to call South Bristol home since 1948. Martin Bailey designed and built the first Bailey caravan in his garage, just a stone's throw from the South Liberty Lane site that now houses our 14.5-acre production facility.

We think of ourselves as one big family. Most of us live nearby and have been part of Bailey for a long time (ten years is the average length of service).

From our joiners and electricians to our designers and fabricators, we have the skills, expertise and experience to build a complex range of caravans and motorhomes, all in the same plant – and all by hand.

What goes into The Nation's Favourite?

It all started with a simple question:
"Is there a better way?"

Leisure vehicle design and construction was stagnant for over 30 years, until we developed Alu-Tech and changed everything. Alu-Tech is a completely new approach to bodyshell construction. Using a unique interlocking aluminium framework to clamp the body panels together, Bailey created a shell that is more robust and durable than anything else on the market.

By significantly reducing the number of external joints and fixing points and using timber-free components in the upper bodyshell panels, we are able to provide greater protection against the elements. Thicker, better-insulated panels, cloaked in impact resistant GRP (Glass Reinforced Plastic), hugely improve the thermal performance of the bodyshell, for genuine four-season performance. All this with no increase in weight or cost. Turns out there really is a better way.

Tested to the limit

From desert dust to Arctic ice, we put our caravans through their paces, so they're at their best on the roads of Great Britain – and beyond.

Good enough simply isn't good enough. It's why we go to extreme lengths to make sure our caravans can perform, whatever's thrown their way. It's only through rigorous testing that we're satisfied our products are ready for the road. Every new range goes through test conditions that push the limits of what a caravan is likely to encounter in its lifetime.

Like our cold chamber testing, which goes down to -15°C to get the best possible results in thermal insulation with the help of our heating system partners.

If something's not up to the job, we go back to the drawing board until it is. That way, when our products hit the road, we know every single one is the best it can be. See how else we take our testing to the limit on our website and learn more about our Bailey Big Adventures by scanning the QR code.

Go anywhere, do everything

Cold chambers and test trucks are one thing, but few things beat getting out there properly.

In 2015, we took two caravans on a 3,500-mile journey through the Australian Outback. During the two-week trip, they stood up to everything the elements could throw at them, proving they could hold their own in even the toughest conditions.

In 2017, we embarked on another marathon endurance test; this time with two caravans and a motorhome, on a 5,000-mile trip to Northern Finland – and well inside the Arctic Circle. Conditions couldn't have been more different than the Red Centre of Australia, but once again the vehicles took everything in their stride.

The successes of these adventures really whet our appetite. So, we decided to embark on a third: 21 countries in 21 days, across two continents – without a rest. From Bristol to Istanbul, we're proud to say the vehicles were more than capable and eager for more – even if we were well in need of a break.
